

Transformation of sentences

1. He ate three cups of rice, but even that did not satisfy his hunger.

Begin: Not even

2. We can go for an outing, provided you come home early.

Begin: We can't go

3. All pupils were given an apple each.

Begin: Each pupil

4. She said to us, " Let us go through the syllabus."

Begin: She suggested

5. This news is too good to be true.

End: it cannot be true.

6. My problem is not the same as yours.

Begin: My problem

7. We haven't got enough time.

Begin: We are a bit short

8. As I see more of him, I like him less.

Begin: The

9. " Please don't blame me for it," she said

Begin: She begged

10. It's a pity it's too late to do anything about it.

Begin: I wish

11. He was unable to take up the post until early the following year.

Begin: Not until

12. That he was the guilty man was obvious to everyone.

Begin: It

13. They were so kind to me that I will never forget it.

Begin: I will never forget

14. The way of life among the tribals is full of tradition

Use: traditional

15. The young people like his songs.

Begin: His songs are popular

16. They continued to dance till the end.

Begin: They went on

17. He spoke softly because he didn't want to wake the baby.

Begin: He spoke softly so

18. My trousers need cleaning.

Begin: I must get

19. The price of potatoes has risen recently.

End: potatoes

20. One of the topics you find in every newspaper is the cost of living.

Begin: The cost of living