	Reference to context:- Q1- " In the struggling fishing village of kovalam in Kerala Kali Veerapathiran is a hero. Not because he is an actor , and not because he has fought off villains. a) What do these lines tell us about the people who are usually considered heroes in India ? b) Is this a good definition of a ' hero' ? Q2- " Who has ever learnt dance and made any money afterwards? It's a waste of time!" growls kali's Maama. "Only girls dance! You'll become girlish," his friends tease him. a) What do these lines tell us about people's opinions of different professions? b) What do you think we can do to change these views? Q3- Amma asks Kali what his heart wants. " Do you love dancing? Does it make you feel good? Is that what you want to spend life doing?" "Yes! Dance is all that and more for me, Amma," he replies.

	" Then don't listen to anyone. If it makes you happy ,learn dancing. As usual ,Amma has all the answers. a) What does this conversation tell us about amma's nature? b) What do we know about Kali's relationship with her? Some more questions:- Q4- How did Kali evolve ,both as a dancer and as a person , through the journey described in the lesson? Q5- A boy in your class loves to sew. The other students in the class tease him including some of your closest friends . What do you do?
