Q. Read this story. Replace the naming words in colour with He/She/I.

Once there lived a farmer in a certain village. The farmer had a goose which laid an egg every day. It was not an ordinary one, rather, a golden egg. The farmer sold the egg and got much money everyday. Soon the farmer became rich. But the farmer was greedy. The farmer wanted to become richer. The farmer was not satisfied with one egg a day. The farmer thought to himself "My goose laid one egg a day, what if I cut open the goose's belly and got all the golden eggs together, then the farmer will become the richest man in the village. So the farmer decided to kill the goose. The farmer took a knife and killed the goose. But alas! there was not a single egg in the goose's belly. Now the farmer will not get any golden egg.
