According to Hindu calendar, the festival falls on the new moon day in the month of Kartika. It is an auspicious festival celebrated with great enthusiasm all over the country. It is the festival of lights. The celebration starts few days ahead of the Diwali day with crackers and sweets. Diyas and crackers are kept in every home and people enjoy this festival. Diwali marks the death of evil man Ravana, killed by Lord Rama. It is considered as the day when good succeeded the evil. We wear new clothes early morning after taking oil bath. All the shops and markets are decorated with lights. Everyone light candles, lamps, and diyas in their homes. People worship Lord Ganesha and Goddess Lakshmi on this day praying for good wealth, prosperity and fortune. Diwali brings happiness to the hearts and makes relationships grow closer.
