VIII 02.11..20	ENGLISH LANGUAGE	Letter writing	Write a Letter to the Editor of ‘Hindustan Times’ to highlight the absence of a playground in your locality Vijaya Heritage, Kadma, Jamshedpur-831005. 2nd November,2020. The Editor Hindustan Times, Jamshedpur-831005. Dear Sir, Through the coloumn of your esteemed newspaper I would like to to bring the attention of the concerned authorities towards the absence of the playground and sports facilities in our locality. These are the necessary activities for all age people in current times. The increase in pollution, contracting open space due to industrialization, an increase in traffic, etc. have contributed to the decline of the environment and human health. The absence of open spaces in the residential areas and townships have further provoked the issue. The lack of playgrounds and open spaces has deprived the joy of children playing outdoor games. So, it has affected their physical growth and development. I would once again request the concerned authorities to look into this problem, so that they will provide a playground and sports facilities in our locality. Yours faithfully, Vikas

04.11.20	ENGLISH LANGUAGE		Narrative Composition Imagine that you come across a Complete Blackout A Day Before Examination.. Narrate the incident in your own words. It was the first day of April. I had my English examination the next day. I had just taken out my books to revise and there was a power cut, as electricity board declared a complete blackout and battery of our inverter had already exhausted. I was sweating all over but the power breakdown made the things horrible as I had to revise my syllabus. I became nervous and started crying. Mother lit a candle and consoled me. She said that God would certainly help me and I should not lose heart. I am not used to reading in candle-light. The flames flickered and I had to draw the book closer to my eyes. The heat and suffocation were becoming unbearable. I had made a fan with a piece of card-board but I could not use it. The flame would go out with the first whiff of the wind. I thought of moving under the street light as it was the only source that could be tapped. When I opened my book under the pole of the street light, a scooter passed by. I started looking towards the rider. I could not concentrate at all. My mother advised me to go to sleep and promised to wake me up when the electricity supply would be restored. It was like a camel sleeping with the whole burden tied on its back Who could think of sleeping under these circumstances? I closed my eyes like an obedient son but sleep eluded me. The figure of the examiner haunted me all night. The question paper appeared before me and frightened me out of my wits. Electricity supply was restored at around 2 a.m. My mother tried to wake me up but I was already lost in nightmares. My mother told me later that in sleep I was murmuring all the sentences and paragraphs of my

But I realised we should never leave things to the twelfth hour. Had I studied well in advance I would have scored well in my examination.
