X 6/11/20	ENGLISH LITERATURE	THE NINE GOLD MEDALS(Poem)	Q. Show how a sense of suspense was built up before the final competition in the poem “The Nine Gold Medals”. Ans. The suspense was built up with loudspeakers calling out the names of the runners who would take part in the one-hundred metre run and the nine athletes standing there ‘determined and poised for the sound of the gun’. Spectators were eager to see who wins the gold medal. Q. How apt is the title of the poem “The Nine Gold Medals”? Ans. The title of the poem “Nine Gold Medals” actually carries a lot of meaning in it. It arouses a curiosity in the mind of the readers as to who would have been awarded the gold medal but the story is entirely different in a typical manner. It’s about the nine athletes charged ahead on their respective tracks were waiting for the race to begin. Then, there happened an unexpected thing, the shortest of all the contestants stumbled, staggered and fell down on his knees to the ground, the Asphalt track. While all the remaining eight athletes, despite undergoing months of strenuous hard work and training, returned and helped the fallen one, continued and finished the race. All the nine athletes were awarded a gold medal not for winning the race but they were appreciated and honoured outstanding display of human compassion, cooperation, collaboration and true sportsman spirit. They had touched the hearts of each of the members present in the congregation. Here, we find that the whole concept of the poem revolves around the athletes and the medals. thus, the title is very much distinctive, impeccable, and apt.	https://englicist.com/notes/nine-gold-medals-david-roth
