V	ENG LIT	Ten Tall Oak Trees	I. Quote from memory: Ten tall oak trees Standing in a line, 'Warships,' cried King Henry, Then there were nine. Nine tall oak trees Growing strong and straight, 'Charcoal,' breathed the furnace, Then there were eight. II. Word Meanings: 1.furnace - an enclosed structure in which material can be heated to a very high temperature 2.brewery – a place where beer is made commercially 3.screamed – gave a long, loud, piercing cry 4.sighing – emitting a long, deep audible breath expressing sadness 5.groaning – making a deep inarticulate sound conveying pain, despair, etc. 6.snarled – said something in an angry, bad-tempered voice 7.grumped –acted in a sulky, grumbling manner	https://youtu.be/4f1LyuDe1Bw
	ENG LIT	Ten Tall Oak Trees	D) Answer the following questions: 1. What is the man's reaction towards nature? How does the poet feel towards this? Ans- The man is too greedy towards nature. He feels that he can digest everything on the nature alone. He does not want to leave anything for the others. 2. List the reasons man cuts trees. Ans- There were many reasons due to which man cut trees. Trees were cut for making the warships, for using as charcoal in the furnace, for firewoods, for making the beer barrels, for using as gangway and for making the floorboards.

3. The poet repeats the phrase 'tall oak trees'. What purpose does this serve?
Ans- The poet repeats the phrase 'tall oak trees' because the phrase has a special rhythm called dactylic which increases the lyricism of the poem. It means the tall oak trees fulfil the essential or greedy wishes of all and at last they finish their existence forever.

II) Answer the following questions with reference to context:

1. 'Gateway', screamed the west wind,
Then there were four.

A) Why did the west wind scream gateway?

Ans- The west wind screamed gateway because there was requirement of making a walkway providing a passage or a raised platform to go so, to make a bypass the fifth oak tree was going to be cut.

2. Three tall oak trees,
Groaning as trees do,

A) Why did the oak trees groan?

Ans- The oak trees groaned because they were being removed or cut down to fulfill the wishes of the greedy human needs.

3. Two tall oak trees
Spreading in the sun

A) Why were the oak trees spreading in the sun?

Ans- The oak trees were spreading in the sun because they were not cut so they were growing and developing themselves under the sun.

4. One tall oak tree
Wishing it could run,

A) Why did the oak tree wish to run?

Ans- The oak tree wished to run because it wanted to save itself from being cut down.
