

KERALA PUBLIC SCHOOLS

HOME ASSIGNMENT(DATE : __1st February - 6th February_____)

CLASS	SUBJECT	TOPIC / CHAPTER	MODULE/ ASSIGNMENT	REFERENC E LINKS
VIII	English Language	Composition	Essay on Time Management For Children &amp; Students Time is one of the most precious thing of our life. The life that we are given is valued in the amount of time. From our childhood to the last day of our life, we spend our time as we like. Time is an invaluable entity. It never comes back once spent. It is very essential to manage our time for a blissful, successful and happy life. Time management refers to the process of wisely planning and execution of tasks and goals to get the maximum benefits. Under the prefect time management we make schedule of our necessary tasks to get them done for our greater benefit. The life has become quite busy. There are hundred of tasks we have to do in our routine life. With perfect time strategy we may become able to sort out and complete them for success and mental satisfaction.It makes us more productive, satisfied and goals oriented in our life. It motivates us for more qualitative work with reduced stress levels. With perfectly managed time approach we are able to keep a balance between our professional and personal life. We can live a healthy and peaceful life. Mankind is born lazy. He always finds the quick and easy to do ways in life. Though, the quick means work but, in the long run, hard work with a perfect strategy always works. There is no avoidance from the hard work. It strengthens our mind and prepares us for the more progress ahead. Time management is, therefore, very essential for every person, like for student, businessman, politician, civil servant etc.

			Time management is the key to success. Laziness brings nothing in life. Therefore, time management should be made a habit from the very beginning. The students should be well aware about the need and importance of time management in our life. It helps a student to complete all the tasks on due with success and productivity in life.
VIII	English Literature	Ch- The night of the Tragedy	5. a. The narrator's  b. The person intended to leave as there was no further need of his Services.  c. The look on Lawrence's face made him to stop talking 6. a. John Cavendish.  b. The person had to agree to an autopsy on Mrs Inglethorpe's dead body. Dr Wilkins asked John to agree.  c. They had to agree because without it Dr Wilkins and Dr Baurstein were unable to issue a death certificate. 7. The narrator himself was of a very inquisitive nature similar to that of a detective.. His ability To notice minute details like the absence of Mr Inglethorpe and noticing that his room hadn't been used in while. The narrator was also good at deducing things. Dr Baurstein's behaviour made the narrator a bit suspicious of him. His idea to call his friend , Hercule Poirot , as soon as possible to investigate the scene of the incident also showed his quick thinking.
VIII	English Language	Letter writing	LETTER TO THE EDITOR Letter to the Editor of Times of India for complaining about loudspeaker nuisance in your area.

			Vijaya Heritage, Kadma, Jamshedpur-831005. 1st February,2021. The Editor, Times of India, Jamshedpur-831005. Sir, Through the coloumn of your esteemed newspaper I would like to bring your kind attention to the indiscriminate use of loudspeaker in our colony. Nowadays, the loudspeaker has been used by the companies beyond the stipulated time in marriages and religious ceremonies. The nuisance cause disturbance to the students and adults. It is known that February and March month is exclusively for students to prepare for their final examination, and loudspeakers are hampering a lot in this I would request senior authorities to consider the concern and take some strict measures to eliminate the nuisance. Efforts for such concern will be appreciated by all. Yours faithfully, Full Name
VIII	English Language	Notice writing	Write a notice informing students about a charity fair that is going to be organised in the school to collect donations for the needy group of people. Answer  GIVE FOR GOOD CAMPAIGN CHARITY FAIR FOR THE UNDERPRIVILEGED PEOPLE . on 5th February, 2021 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the School Playground, St. Joseph’s School  Students are requested to denote generously and are also invited to put stalls of games, activities and food. Please contact the School President for further details.

VIII	English Literature	Ch- The night of the Tragedy	8. a. Who was the first one to notice the situation of Mrs Inglethorp? b. Who did he or she inform about it? c. Which one of the usual occupants of the house was missing when people learnt of the situation? d. Who met Mrs Inglethorp last and what time? e. Who else has the keys to Mrs Inglethorp's room? 9. Yes, I find Mr Inglethorp's absence a bit suspicious Yes, there can be an innocent explanation for it like a flat tyre. 10. Your answer..
VIII	English Literature	Poem – The sower	Learn the poem and write in the notebook.

DIRECTOR ACADEMICS