VIII Day 1	English Literature	The Lake Isle Of Innisfree	D.1. What can we say about the present state of the mind of the speaker?
Duy 1	Encrutare	Or mansiree	Ans: The poet wishes to escape to Innisfree as it is more peaceful than where he is now-the city. Innisfree is representative of what the poet considers an ideal place to live, which is devoid of the restless atmosphere of his life. It explores the poet's longing for the peace and tranquility of Innisfree, a place where he spent a lot of time as a boy. Even when he is away from Innisfree, he recalls the sound of the lake water washing the shore. 2. In the poem, the poet imagines an escape from the weariness of everyday life.
			a. Which aspects of daily life does he probably dislike?
			Ans: The poet dislikes his sad and busy life in the city. He doesn't find peace of mind in the city.

			b. How does the Isle of Innisfree present a contrast to them?
			Ans: The Isle of Innisfree presents a contrast to them by being a peaceful island filled with the beauty of nature.
			According to the poet, he will find peace of mind in Innisfree.
			c. Which colours suggest this contrast?
			Ans: The poet describes Innisfree as an island covered in greenery, where the midnight glows and the noon appears purple. On the other hand he describes the city as grey. These colours suggest this contrast.
			3. Will the poet be happy and satisfied if he permanently lives in the Isle of Innisfree? Do you think he will want to return to his previous life after a few days? Give a reasoned answer.
			Ans: Yes the poet will be happy and satisfied if he permanently lives in the Isle of Innisfree. The poet would never return to his previous life because he thinks that a simple life amidst nature brings uninterrupted peace and joy. A life of material comforts offered by cities is marred by noise, pollution, and crowds while the life offered by nature is in harmony with the soul. Nature has magical qualities and offers an ideal way of living life.
VIII	English	The Lake Isle	Extra Questions:
Day 2	Literature	Of Innisfree	1. How does the poet describe the lake's waves?
			Answer: The poet says that the lake's waves hit its shore and create a low sound. It gives him aesthetic pleasure. He hears it and enjoys it. It also gives him solace and comforts. He finds his peace of mind.
			2. What does the isle of Innisfree stand for the poet?
			Answer: The isle of Innisfree stands for unadulterated natural beauty. A visit to Innisfree gives immense joy, pleasure and peace to the poet. The sounds of honeybees, crickets and the lake water lapping by the shore tempt him to go there again and again. He will be contented with living in a small cabin and working at a small farm.
			3. When and where will the poet experience 'peace'?
			Answer: The poet will experience 'peace' in the lap of nature at the Lake Isle of Innisfree. He will observe the beautiful trees, insects, birds and bushes. The calm and cool atmosphere of the forest will give happiness to him.
VIII	English	The Lake Isle	Short answer questions:
	English Literature	Of Innisfree	1. What does the poet wish to build at Innisfree?
Day 3	Literature	Orimnistree	Ans: The poet wishes to build a small cabin at Innisfree to be made with sticks and clay.
			2. What does "Innisfree" symbolise?
			Ans: Innisfree symbolises a place of peace and tranquility.
			3. Why does the poet wish to stay at Innisfree?
			Ans: The poet wishes to stay at Innisfree:
	1		(a)To live in peaceful environment; and
			(b)To escape from hectic schedule-of the city life.
			(b)To escape from hectic schedule-of the city life.4. Trace a word from the extract that means "open space".Ans: Glade.

			Jamshedpuer-831005
			22 nd June, 2021,
			Dear Uncle, Sam
			I hope this letter finds you in sound health and vibrant spirits. You will be glad to know that I have won first position in inter-school debate competition in the city last week. As many as 60 students from 15 States participated in it.
			The topic of the debate was 'Should animals be banned from Circuses?' I spoke in favour of the motion. I gave arguments to support my debate, quoted facts and figures quite confidently. The best part was the judges liked my expression and presentation. At the end I was given a thundering applause. I was so happy when my name was announced for the first position. At school also received so much of praise and appreciation from the principal.
			How is life at your end? Give warm regards to uncle and aunt.
			Yours affectionately,
			Your first name.
